1. 7 September 1949

A single-engine fighter practiced stunt flying at the SPENDAL-BORSTEL (M 53/Y 75) airfield at about 8 p.m. Two planes of the same type were parked in front of an open hangar.

2. 14 September 1949

There was no flying, the hangars were closed and no aircraft were observed.

Field Comment:

The presence of fighters at the field on 7 September 1949 is considered credible since another source observed 16 fighters there on 6 September 1949. The fighter unit was apparently transferred there on 6 September 1949. The fighter unit was apparently transferred to ORANIENBURG between 6 and 10 September 1949 *. This assumption is supported by the observation at the ORANIENBURG field
